

Hello!

You will soon listen to a lecture about consent and sexual crimes online.

When:

Where:

The lecture will cover, among other things:

- That you should have fun and be safe online
- Consent
- Good and bad secrets
- What are the sexual crimes that you and others can be victims of and that are found online?
- Here's what you can do to avoid offending someone online – and here's how you can get help if it has already happened.
- What are the reasons why someone sends naked pictures or films online?
- It is never your fault if you are subjected to a crime.
- Consequences of sexual crimes.
- What can you do if you receive a story from a friend who has been subjected to online or that you are worried about?
- Where can you seek help if I or someone else is subjected to a crime?

During the lecture, several adults will be listening. They hear the same things that you hear. You can turn to them (or another adult you trust) with questions afterwards.
